DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. Claims 2, 5 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 1. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Claim 2 has been incorporated into Claim 1 but not canceled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 6-8, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Matsui et al. (6,330,039).

Matsui et al. discloses an image projection device comprising:

Light emitting diodes (34R, 34G, 34B) capably of being individually controlled (Column 10 Lines 29-34) to adjust the light emission;

Light valves (11R, 11B, 11G);

A color composition prism (10) for combining modulated lights.

Controller (35) is provided to control the light sources in response to image analysis based upon the type of image to be projected.

4. Claims 1-2, 9-10, 13-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Allen et al. (2003/0227577).

Allen discloses in Figure 4 discloses a projection device having red, green and blue light sources (124, 126, 128) each capable of individually adjusting it's emission output. Analyzers (122, 116) are provided for determination of color factors and a controller (120, 114) is provided for changing the emission spectra.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Allen et al. in view of Yokoyama.

Allen et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed but performs color synthesis before modulation.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify the device of Allen et al. by the use of the light control method in devices having synthesis after modulation such as taught by Yokoyama because such systems are more common.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 3, 5, 11-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 4/12/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that Allen does not teach the adjustment of emission spectra is not persuasive as relates to the embodiment shown in Figure 4., paragraph [0051] Further, the references may be interpreted with color filters forming a part of an "illumination device" and therefore emission is made from the connected structure.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
